

Where Is Nell?

Where is my kitten, little Nell,
Can you be hiding in the dell?
Please let me know,
I wish you'd tell
Where you are hiding, little Nell.

I think I'll ring the dinner bell,
And put out food for you to smell.
Oh there you are,
No need to yell.
You've come for dinner, little Nell.
